

Stacey Jarrett Wagner
Principal, The JarrettWagner Group LLC
1831 Belmont Road, #101
Washington, DC 20009
jarrettwagner@gmail.com
202 309 1245

---

Areas of Expertise

- Building and maintaining external and internal strategic partnerships.
- Strategic planning for non-profits for sustainability, partnerships and talent management.
- Coaching and technical assistance for collaborations.
- Relationship management (foundations, non-profits, business firms, government).
- Organizational audits and coaching.

JarrettWagner Group LLC and Biztiks ©

2014-Current

The JarrettWagner Group LLC specializes in strategy development and implementation for issues such as nonprofit strategic planning and implementation, philanthropic relationship management, alignment of regional workforce and economic development strategies, planning and execution of organizational systems change, coaching and technical assistance for community collaborations, and business research and benchmarking for talent management. JWG LLC clients include:

- Work Cred (ANSI) for development of a systems auditor registered apprenticeship. (2018)
- WRTP/BIG STEP for strategic planning and implementation. (2018)
- California Manufacturing Technology Consulting to provide Biztiks benchmarking for the MEP's small manufacturers. (2017)
- Workforce Central Manufacturers Peer Group to provide Biztiks benchmarking for the region's small manufacturers. (2017)
- Partners for a Competitive Workforce to provide Biztiks to one of their small manufacturers. (2016)
- U.S. Department of Commerce/EDA with New York University and Jobs for the Future to identify and align economic development programs across federal agencies and revise CEDS grant requirements to include workforce development. (2016-2017)
- East Alabama Workforce Investment Network in strategic planning for a regional expansion of administrative oversight of Alabama's Regional Workforce Councils. (2016)
- National Skills Coalition for research and writing regarding workforce policy. (2016)
- National Fund for research, coaching and technical assistance to place-based collaborations. (2008-2019)

- U.S. Department of Labor/ETA/OA to provide coaching assistance to Maryland’s Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation to support statewide apprenticeships and sector initiatives. (2015-2016)
- The Hitachi Foundation to provide strategic planning facilitation. (2015)
- GE to provide blogs on manufacturing and workforce development for GE’s Ideas Lab. (2015)

Manufacturing Extension Partnership, U.S. Department of Commerce 2011 - 2014

- Devised and executed a strategy for integrating workforce development as a critical business strategy for small and medium-sized manufacturers to be deployed by MEP Centers.
- Created a cloud-based software program analyzing the alignment between a business’ operational goals and its workforce investments.
- Participated in Secretary Pritzker’s workforce policy team.
- Represented the Department of Commerce on the American Council for Apprenticeship.
- Authored the workforce chapter in “Remaking America” a 2013 publication of the Alliance for American Manufacturing describing policies that support advanced manufacturing in the 21st century.
- Presented at MIT and TEDX Richmond on the future of the manufacturing workforce.
- Regular MEP blog contributor.

JarrettWagner Group LLC 2008 - 2011

- Assessed the regional mechanisms, protocols, plans and policies in rural and urban regions that have facilitated or constrained the region’s economic growth.
- Devised strategies for job creation and skills development, including recommendations on how to build strong regional partnerships for growth and employment.
- Regional site coach for National Fund for Workforce Solutions focused on community prosperity.
- Developed community workforce strategy for global company ARAMARK.
- Author of multiple reports on workforce development, including one for Corporate Voices for Working Families on the return on investment that corporations can realize from entry-level worker training and “earn and learn” internships.

National Association of Manufacturers’ Center for Workforce Success 2002 - 2008

- Responsible for the Center’s strategic planning and for its research and programs, as well as the creation and implementation of products and services, such as the NAM’s veteran-hiring initiative with RecruitMilitary, the Filling America’s Jobs series of workforce how-to guides, and its seminar series on industry sector workforce development.
- Managed relations with federal and private philanthropic funders.

- Contributed technical assistance to the Center’s grant-funded initiatives, including the Workforce Innovation Networks, Building Sector Strategies for Employer Engagement, Community Development Partnerships, Business Champions for a 21st Century Workforce, and the Dream It Do It manufacturing careers campaign.

American Society for Training and Development

1990s

- Led a consortium of global companies to research their training practices and provide them with networking and learning opportunities to benchmark best practices, including human resources and workforce development systems, companies’ use of employment and training providers, and corporate social responsibility initiatives.

Education and Professional Membership

- M.S. in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from Capella University in Minneapolis, MN.
- Executive Certificate in Corporate Social Responsibility from Harvard Business School in Boston, MA.
- Graduate work in Organizational Development at George Washington University in Washington, DC.
- B.A. in International Relations from American University in Washington, DC.
- Certified Family Business Advisor, Galliard Institute, Rochester, NY.
- Member, CEOs for Cities, Cleveland, OH

For a list of all publications see <http://www.jarrettwagnergroup.com/publications-media/>