

Stacey Jarrett Wagner
Principal, The JarrettWagner Group LLC
1831 Belmont Road, #101
Washington, DC 20009
jarrettwagner@gmail.com
202 309 1245

Areas of Expertise

- Research to practical solutions for organizations and communities.
- Building and maintaining external and internal strategic partnerships.
- Strategic planning for sustainability, partnerships and talent management.
- Coaching and technical assistance for community collaborations.
- Relationship management (foundations, non-profits, business firms, government).
- Organizational process analysis for talent management and workforce development.

JarrettWagner Group LLC and Biztik's ©

2014-Current

Stacey Jarrett Wagner specializes in strategy development and implementation for issues such as workforce research and execution, nonprofit strategic planning and implementation, scaling strategies for community development, planning and execution of organizational systems change, coaching and technical assistance for non-profits, and innovative benchmarking for talent management and new business opportunities.

JWG LLC clients and work include:

- Canadian Innovation Centre for Mental Health in the Workplace presentation on the trauma-informed workplace.
- Corporation for a Skilled Workforce competencies research and system mapping on robotics, digital twinning and advanced analytics to inform educational systems change (2021-2022)
- IAAR development of a competency-based registered apprenticeship including curriculum development, funding, and partner and client management (2018-2022)
- National Fund for Workforce Solutions guide on COVID-informed workplace policy (2021)
- American Federation of Teachers Innovation Fund research and case study on the role of local teachers' unions in community systems change (2021)
- Indiana University-commissioned study on future manufacturing workforce policy (2020)
- Workcred research on credential use in small manufacturing firms (2019-2022)
- WRTP/BIG STEP strategic planning (2018)
- National Fund for Workforce Solutions research, coaching and technical assistance to place-based collaborations (2008-2020)

Manufacturing Extension Partnership, U.S. Department of Commerce

2011 - 2014

- Devised and executed a strategy for integrating workforce development as a critical business strategy for small and medium-sized manufacturers to be deployed by MEP Centers.
- Created a cloud-based software program analyzing the alignment between a business' operational goals and its workforce investments.
- Participated in Secretary Pritzker's workforce policy team.
- Represented the Department of Commerce on the American Council for Apprenticeship.
- Authored the workforce chapter in "Remaking America" a 2013 publication of the Alliance for American Manufacturing describing policies that support advanced manufacturing in the 21st century.
- Presented at MIT and TEDX Richmond on the future of the manufacturing workforce.
- Regular MEP blog contributor.

JarrettWagner Group LLC

2008 - 2011

- Regional site coach for National Fund for Workforce Solutions focused on community prosperity.
- Assessed the collaborative mechanisms, protocols, plans and policies in rural and urban regions that facilitate or constrain the region's economic growth.
- Devised strategies for job creation and skills development, including recommendations on how to build strong regional collaborations for economic growth and employment.
- Developed community workforce strategy for global company ARAMARK.
- Author of multiple reports on workforce development, including one for Corporate Voices for Working Families on the return on investment that corporations can realize from entry-level worker training and "earn and learn" internships.

National Association of Manufacturers' Center for Workforce Success

2002 - 2008

- Responsible for the Center's strategic planning and for its research and programs, as well as the creation and implementation of products and services, such as the NAM's veteran-hiring initiative with RecruitMilitary, the Filling America's Jobs series of workforce how-to guides, and its seminar series on industry sector workforce development.
- Managed relations with federal and private philanthropic funders.
- Contributed technical assistance to the Center's grant-funded initiatives, including the Workforce Innovation Networks, Building Sector Strategies for Employer Engagement, Community Development Partnerships, Business Champions for a 21st Century Workforce, and the Dream It Do It manufacturing careers campaign.

Education and Professional Membership

- M.S. in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from Capella University in Minneapolis, MN
- Executive Certificate in Corporate Social Responsibility from Harvard Business School in Boston, MA
- Graduate work in Organizational Development at George Washington University in Washington, DC
- B.A. in International Relations from American University in Washington, DC
- Member, PSI CHI International Honor Society for Psychology
- Member, American Psychological Association
- Member, Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychologists

References:

Dr. Roy Swift, CEO, Workcred (non-profit affiliate of ANSI)

Barbara Dyer, President, Hitachi Foundation (now at MIT Sloan)

Ron Dickson, Senior Learning Specialist, Honeywell Aerospace

Milton Bush, CEO, Independent Association of Accredited Registrars

For a list of presentations, interviews and publications, see <http://www.jarrettwagnergroup.com/publications-media/>